

2022 Beaver County Shell's Innovative and Inspiring Educator of the Year Nominee Application

Beaver County's Innovative and Inspiring Educator of the Year is awarded to a public school educator in any discipline, in any grade level in Beaver County who is leading innovative educational practices in classrooms and schools. This award is sponsored through Shell and The Pro Football Alumni Association.

Eligibility:

- Educator must work in a K-12 public school
- Educator must be a full time teacher
- Educator must be full time educator during the current year
- Educator must agree to attend awards banquet on June 25, 2022

Timeline:

- March: Applications will be sent to all Beaver County public school superintendents for distribution in school districts
- April 15: Deadline for nominations to be received
- May 1: 10 Finalists chosen and notified
- May 15: Deadline for finalist applications to be received
- June: Winner notified and Awards Gala

Process

- Review Committee is made up of one representatives from BCET, CCBC, CTC, and BVIU
- Nomination applications should be emailed to Jamie Connelly at: jmconnelly@gmail.com

Award

- The Innovative Educator of the Year will receive Five Thousand Dollars for personal use and two tickets to Shell Gala.

Contact Information

- Jamie Connelly, Director of Beaver County Educational Trust, 724.513.1633.

Nomination Application

Beaver County Innovative and Inspiring Educator of the Year

Nominee:

Nominee's Name:

Nominee's School District and School:

Nominee's Position:

Nominee's Contact Information (phone and email):

Nominator's Name:

Nominator's Place of Employment and Position:

Nominator's Contact Information (phone and email):

I am nominating this educator for the Innovative and Inspiring Educator of the Year award because he or she is a leading educator in implementing best practices in Beaver County in the following area (choose only one):

STEM or STEAM

4 C's: Communication, Collaboration, Critical Thinking, and Creativity

Career and College Ready

Innovative and Engaging Instructional Practices

Please share why you are nominating this educator for the Innovative and Inspiring Educator of the Year. Please share specific examples on how this educator embrace the area that you identified above as well as the following:

- Creates a sense of community in school or classroom
- Sets high expectations for self and students
- Collaborates with other educators
- Inspires students, colleagues, and/or others
- Utilizes innovative practices to engage students
- Any other remarkable attributes that you wish to share about the nominee